New Thom McAn Shoe Store Nearly Ready at Del Amo

Thom McAn's new family shoe style center is nearing completion in Del Amo Shopping Center, Torrance. The store will be operated by a local company, Del Amo Thom McAn, Inc., according to William Harbour, district director for Thom McAn in this area.

Dress and casual shoes for the entire family — men, women, children and teenagers — plus color-coordinated handbags, hosiery and other accessories will be available.

AN OUTSTANDING feature will be the new collection of Mr. Thom Designer Fashion shoes reflecting the latest style trends and silhouettes for women. Several hundred shoe styles for all ages are exhibited on open displays, and customers can make their own tentative selections before being seated for fitting in separate departments for men, women and children.

Thom McAn has pioneered in the development of family shoe style centers where personal service, ample parking and spacious store interiors make shopping easy and convenient.

THE NEW store is one of an advanced type being built by Thom McAn all over the country. Francis C. Rooney Jr., Thom McAn president, commented:

"We believe these new family footwear centers will revolutionize shoe buying habits in suburban areas by making it easy for everyone to find high styles at modest prices."

The first Thom McAn store was opened in New York City in 1922. Since then the number has grown to nearly 900 in 500 cities from coast to coast, to make Thom McAn the largest integrated manufacturing-retailing organization in the shoe industry.

Rabbi Helman To Speak on Friday Night

Rabbi Leonard A. Helman of Temple Beth El, 1435 W. 7th St., San Pedro, will preach on Friday at 8:30 p.m. His topic will be "Like God, on a Smaller Scale."

Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fernandez will host the refreshment period in honor of the wedding of their daughter, June, to Leonard Goldberg.
